Expectations: Brown Swiss Royalty are expected to attend the fall meeting, the State Banquet, the Mid-Atlantic Calf Sale, the Maryland Brown Swiss Canton Field Day and the Maryland State Fair and other events as able. The Swiss Miss is expected to represent Maryland at the World Dairy Expo with a monetary award to assist with her expenses. Royalty are expected to represent the organization well at all times by their demeanor and dress. Royalty are a visible symbol of our organization to the national and international dairy market. Our members deserve the respect and the opportunity to market well bred cattle as represented by our royalty as ambassadors for the breed. Please see attachments for additional information re: contest rules and expectations.

Entries will be judged during the Maryland State Fair and titles announced at the Brown Swiss Futurity. Contestants are responsible to have the completed application in the hands of the member below by 4PM the day prior to the Maryland Brown Swiss Futurity. Applications may be mailed or faxed prior to this date but the contestant is responsible to ensure receipt and also have a copy available at the Fair. No further applications will be taken after the stated deadline at which time the member in charge will present them to the President for judging by the committee.
